George W. Lange

There is at present no arrangement for a fire in the shop but Mr. Lange desires the privilege of putting in a chimney soon. The shop is used only by himself and I had some doubt about designating it a Cabinet shop but thought it might be safer to call it and rate it as such as he uses it himself as such. The lower part of it is a stable and carriage house. The place is more than 60 yards from other buildings, I therefore gave it a country rate. This I regard as an excellent risk, as the buildings are so nicely constructed, and protected
