TERMS AND CONDITIONS of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company in Montgomery County for making Insurance against Fire.

I.—Every person making an Insurance shall pay, for each policy issued to him or her, the sum of two dollars, (so long as the state tax of one dollar exists;) and a certain per centage on the amount insured (according to the greater or less hazard of the risk) will be charged by way of premium, for which he, she, or they shall give his, her or their promissory note, payable on demand, and bearing interest at the rate of six per centum per annum; and shall pay, as a prerequisite to the Surveyor making the survey, the sum of one dollar.

II.—Payment of the promissory notes given for premiums shall be liable to be demanded, either wholly or in part, whenever and as often as the President and Directors may determine, for the purpose of paying losses by fire, or defraying the current expenses of the Company; not exceeding, for any one fire, or for one assessment, the amount of said notes.

III.—In case of cancelling an Insurance, or of the termination of a risk, the premium note or notes for such Insurance as may be cancelled, or shall have terminated, shall be returned, when demanded, to the party whose Insurance shall be so cancelled or terminated.

IV.—Any Policy of Insurance may be transferred or assigned by obtaining the consent of the Secretary; and any transfer or assignment made without such consent, expressed in writing, shall cause a forfeiture of all benefit that might otherwise be derived from the Policy.

The Company will not be answerable for loss of property by theft, at the time of a fire.

VI.—The Company shall not be liable to pay for any loss or damage by fire happening in consequence of an invasion, civil commotion, riot, or any military or usurped power whatsoever, or from any locomotive engine or engines.

VIII.—In case of any material increase of risk to the property insured by this Company, such increase of risk must be notified to the Company, and written permission therefor be obtained from the Secretary, for which such charge as may be proper must be paid. All material alterations and additions to buildings, a change of ownership, change of business, or occupant, or the act of renting or vacating the property occupied by the owner when insured, shall vitiate any policy issued on the same, unless such alteration or change shall be first notified to the Board of Directors in writing.
