

Horses Killed by Lightning.

{Special to The American.}

MAY
Boyd's, Md., May 23.—A severe storm passed over Darnstown, this county, this morning, lightning striking a tree under which four draft horses of Stephen Smoot, a farmer, were standing. All four horses were instantly killed.

Mr. Bowen about the charges against Mr. Loomis, Mr. Bowen himself had not suggested to him the publication of the charges.

SACRIFICED HIMSELF

Got Into Car Rather Than