

EXTRACT FROM LETTER OF E. L. TSCHIFFELY, NOV. 22nd., 1902.

--ooOoo--

#35151. Referred to Ex. Committee. This property is in charge of a negro boy who is there at night and in and out during the day. A gasoline engine is in one room of the House, and is used or has been used for pumping water. A negro boy during the absence of the one in charge started this engine and exploded an iron tank. A large quantity of furniture, books and household effects are in the house, but it is not what might be considered a good risk.
